Dear Sterling,

I began using Sterling Transportation because we needed a reliable time definite 3 – day transit time from LAX to MIA -door to door- our type of customer demands on-time sensitive orders.

For my company, Sterling provides a simple and effective, reliable solution all the time. I've chosen Sterling as my carrier because I need a "Yes, we can!" attitude.

One thing I've liked about using Sterling has been the team and staffs attitude they make it happen.

The service Sterling provides has enabled me to focus on my customer's needs and requirements. Sterling has consistently provided reliable service all the time, every time. Sterling's service is unique because of their personalized customer service at all levels. The result of using Sterling for our time sensitive goods allows us to be on time to all the countries we service in South America for the Fashion Industry.

I really like the way Sterling provides a simple and effective mode of transport. I found the experience with Sterling to be top notch! I would recommend Sterling to people who need time definitive shipping and reliability. Based on my experience, anyone using Sterling can expect service, service and service. After having done business with Sterling, I'm happy to say we are 110% satisfied. Businesses which use Sterling can be assured of quality.

Sincerely,

David G. Valencia
